The Daily Quote

"House Democrats on Monday blasted Republicans for moving forward with legislation to prioritize debt payments in the event that the nation's debt ceiling is exceeded. They said the GOP maneuver is a clear sign that a repeat of the brutal 2011 fiscal confrontation is looming. House Majority Leader Eric Cantor (R-Va.) told his GOP colleagues Friday that he expects the House to consider a debt prioritization bill sponsored by Rep. Tom McClintock (R-Calif.) 'in the near future.' The $16.8 trillion national borrowing limit has been suspended until May 19. Once the limit goes back into effect, the Treasury Department will have a matter of weeks before it can no longer avoid being unable to meet some payment obligations."
